

There's an East Coast Reunion Planned...

Thursday, 23 March 2006

Andrea (Brown) West tells me that Shirley James at ussacadia@hotmail.com is organizing a reunion June 9th - 11th in College Park, GA . College Park is an Atlanta suburb by the airport. Contact Shirley for more info and tell her join this site while you're at it (I'm guessing my email got called spam by hotmail).

In other news, I posted a video clip of the bridge while leaving Hong Kong. Andrea West, several QM's, and Capt. King, are in it. You'll need the QuickTime Player from apple.com to play it (it's free); RealMedia Player will play it too, but QuickTime seems to be the least evil choice. I tried to use a Windows Media file, but Windows Media Player wouldn't play it's own file correctly in a browser. The QuickTime video quality is much better anyway (for a given bitrate).
