Friday, 03 November 2006

Shirley James sent a link to the pictures of the 2006 Atlanta reunion; go >here< to see them. Note: the link will be good for only another 80 days, approximately, so if you're reading this a few months from now, it may not work.

As always, if you have photos to share in the photo gallery or anything else you would like to share, please do so. For details on how to do it, use the "Contact Us" button.

A note on joining the site: when thinking up a user name (you have a user name and a real name), don't use spaces. The site will let you, but they tend to cause a lot of trouble when trying to log in.
