

USS Acadia groups on FaceBook

Friday, 13 March 2009

The USS Acadia has found its way to FaceBook.com. There are atleast 2 groups so far with about 25 people each (I joined both). If you haven't gotten on FaceBook yet, might as well jump on the bandwagon while the trend is hot. FaceBook is pretty cool and strangely addictive.

To find the Acadia groups, join FaceBook, and search for "USS Acadia" (no quotes). Atleast two will come up.
